EDITORIAL NOTES.

A good bill passed by the New York Legislature allows to every citizen who plants four nut-bearing, fruit or ornamental trees on the highway adjacent to his lands a rebate of one dollar on his road tax. The intention is to encourage arboriculture. Since for a hundred years we have encouraged our people to ply the ax and lay low the forests, all efforts to replace the loss and beautify the country should be encouraged.

Missouri is a great State, having more than 2,000,000 inhabitants at the time of the last census. But Jefferson City, her capital, is a little burg containing about 5,000 people, who are just now agitated over the question whether Governor Crittenden has a right to pasture his cows on the grounds surrounding the executive mansion.

Mr. Howells begins the sixth part of "A Woman's Reason," in the June Century, with this apothegm: "The character of no man is fixed till it has been tried by that of the woman he loves. Till then he has only the materials of character, and they are all to be shaped and ordered as newly as if he had never had them before."

Mark Twain is a guest of the Marquis of Lorne. What a difference, says the Appeal, between the present career of the selfish humorist and the time that he would regularly be refused credit for a drink in a Carson saloon.

The coronation of the Emperor of Russia will take place to-morrow. Nihilists, so far, have made no attempt to carry out their threats, but the whole civilized world will be looking for news from Moscow to-morrow.

Striking miners and iron-workers in several States seem bent upon making trouble, and it is feared that in some sections there will be conflicts with the military, which has already been called out.

The poll-tax of Russia will be reduced 10,000,000 roubles, and a remission of various fines, sentences and penalties are to occur from the date of the Czar's coronation.

Omaha Bee: Judicious advertising in newspapers that reach the people is a better investment than plate glass show windows and handsome counter jumpers.

Nebraska has one newspaper to every 2,400 inhabitants, which is more papers to the population than has any State east of the Mississippi river.

FOREIGN TELEGRAPH.

[PRE DISPATCHES TO THE GAZETTE.]

V. A. Imminent Between France and China.

LONDON, May 26.
 A Times correspondent at St. Petersburg says rumors that a rupture between France and China are confirmed. Li Hung Chang has been summoned to take command of the Chinese troops in the provinces bordering on Tonquin, and is daily expected at Shanghai on his way to the new post to begin operations. It is believed the French Minister at Peking and the Chinese Minister at Paris will shortly receive their passports.

Russian Amnesty for Polish Exiles.

LONDON, May 26.
 A Times correspondent at Moscow says an imperial manifesto is to be issued on the day of the coronation which will grant amnesty to all Polish exiles willing to submit to police supervision for two years. No other political prisoners will be pardoned.

A British Training-Ship Burned.

DUNDEE, May 26.
 The training ship Nero was partially destroyed by fire. There were 400 boys on board when the flames were discovered, but all were saved. It is suspected that the fire was incendiary.

—The Department of State has received information that a treaty of peace, substantially in the form heretofore reported, has been signed by Chili and Peru.

A Sham Battle that Recalls Recollections of Deadly Strife.

NASHVILLE, May 25.
 The attendance at the fair grounds this afternoon was the largest ever known in this city, and was estimated in the neighborhood of 20,000 people. After dinner artillery drill was resumed by companies B and C of the Louisiana field artillery. This was followed by dress parade, after which all the troops present participated in a sham battle. General C. S. Bently of Iowa led the attacking party and Col. I. G. Butler of Missouri commanded the defending forces. The battle was over the entire enclosure of the fair grounds, covering an area of one mile. The forces consisted of infantry, artillery and cavalry. The attacking party was victorious and drove a part of the defenders back into the drill-grounds, where their batteries were captured at the point of the bayonet. The firing was heard in the city and recalled vividly recollections of the historic battle of Nashville, and had a familiar and not over-pleasant sound to volunteers of both sections. Only one accident occurred in the slight wounding of Wm. Walsh of the Treadway rifles by wadding from a field-piece, as he, with others, was charging the battery. He was knocked senseless, but recovered in a short time and is all right again.

Hangman's Day—A Brace of Murderers Roped into Eternity.

SHREVEPORT, May 26.
 Leander Coleman (colored) was hanged at Belleville, Bossier parish, this afternoon, for the murder of his father-in-law, John Gayle, on the night of August 29, 1882. Coleman confessed his guilt, and also said he killed John Bratton, his step-father, some years ago, for which a young man (white) named Benny Shaw, was tried. Coleman's neck was broken.

CLARENDON, Ark., May 26.

At 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon, in the presence of 3,000 people, Jack Taylor, a white man, was hung for the murder of an old man named Hugh Ingram, who three years ago ordered him from the house when Taylor was drunk. To the last Taylor maintained that he killed Ingram in self-defense. He began to speak from the gallows, but changed his mind and bid the crowd good-bye, saying he hoped to meet them all in heaven. In 27 minutes the body was cut down.

Sitting Bull Not So Anxious to be Baptized.

CINCINNATI, May 24.
 H. A. Farney, artist, who has been doing illustrations of Indian life for Harper's, was anxious to be present at the baptism of Sitting Bull in the Catholic church. He therefore telegraphed an inquiry to Dakota, and received the following from the Indian agent at Fort Gates, Dakota: "The reported baptism of Sitting Bull is erroneous. There is no immediate prospect of such ceremony, so far as I am aware of."

Military Called Out by the Threats of Striking Coal Miners.

ST. LOUIS, May 25.
 A dispatch from Collinsville says a military company under command of Lieutenant Fruct arrived this evening from Edwardsville, and are quartered at pit No. 4. Another company is en route from Taylorville. President Crandall will resume operations in the Abbey mines to-morrow. Other mines will also resume. It is not known at this writing what action the strikers will take to-morrow, but it is believed they will come in conflict with the military.

Sympathy for the Widows and Orphans.

GALVESTON, May 26.
 The Irishmen of this city are raising a fund for the benefit of the widows and children of the men recently executed in Dublin for the Phoenix Park murders. About $700 has already been subscribed, and the intention is to make it $1,000.

Small-Pox in Minnesota—Several Deaths Already.

ST. MICHAEL, May 25.
 Twenty-five cases of small-pox here. Several deaths have already occurred. There is great indignation among neighboring towns over the neglect of the authorities to provide means to prevent the spread of the disease.

A Defaulting Paymaster who Wants to Refund.

GALVESTON, May 25.
 Major Wasson, the army defaulting paymaster, has had a secret consultation with his legal advisers. It is thought the amount of $5,500 will be refunded with the view of escaping the penitentiary.

DEAD AND MANGLED.

The Old Steamer Pilot Explodes Her Boiler and Adds Many Names to the Death-Roll.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 26.
 The steamer Belle brought the wounded persons from the wrecked Pilot to Petaluma, where the best attention was given them. Last night nothing was visible of the wreck except a few sticks. At low tide the stern and upper part of the forward deck are out of water. The boiler burst out through the top, carrying everything with it. The steamboat inspectors are at Petaluma to make an examination, and will say nothing until it is completed. The Belle is now at the scene of disaster to save parts of the wreck and recover the bodies of victims. The latest list of victims are: J. J. Hogan of San Francisco, killed; Mrs. George P. McNear of Petaluma, died from wounds; four sons of W. T. Mathers, drowned; J. Shattuck, a fireman, instantly killed; Samuel F. Graves, captain of the Pilot, knocked senseless, has a cut forehead; J. J. McCalvy, broken arm; W. F. Mathers, badly scalded and severely bruised; infant child of Mrs. W. F. Mathers, badly scalded and cannot survive; Geo. C. Palmer, pilot, wounded in the neck and four ribs broken, and his case is regarded as almost hopeless by the surgeons; William Sullivan, slight wound on the right side. The following are reported missing: Horace Bell, mate of the Pilot; A. J. Blackwell, Thos. Crawford, engineer; G. W. Gwinn, A. Haines, steward; Miss Mathers, daughter of W. F. Mathers; Peter McCabe and Richmond, deck hands. N. Silvea, cabin boy and an unknown man, a deck hand.

Crook Heard From—Thirty Apaches Converted.

TOMBSTONE, May 25.
 Reliable information is received that Crook had an engagement with a large body of Indians in the Sierra Madres last week. Crook had sent forward a portion of the San Carlos scouts, who were surprised by the hostiles and driven back to the main body. A general advance was then made by the entire force, driving the hostiles from their entrenched position and killing 30, when the remainder broke and fled. Crook immediately took the trail and started in pursuit.

 To the Citizens of Reno:

I HAVE BEEN A RESIDENT of your town for three years, and, outside of my own business, have not seen a decent pair of boots that were made here. In order, therefore, to extend to everyone facilities for obtaining really first-class boots and shoes, I have sent to San Francisco for two A. No. 1 mechanics, the best to be found in the country, and with me (as heretofore) a prime, first-class shop. The enlargement of my stock and facilities will entail heavy extra expense, and I look and trust, therefore, to Reno's citizens and the people generally who are desirous of obtaining the very best of workmanship, to aid me with their increased patronage. First-class material, first-class workmanship and first-class work at living rates is the motto on my coat-of-arms. Enim FRED PAVOLA.

MARSHAL'S PROCLAMATION:
 THE CEREMONY OF DECORATING the graves of the Nation's Honored Dead will be observed by the citizens of Washoe county Nevada, at Reno, on the 30th day of May, A. D. 1883. A cordial invitation to participate is extended to the military and secret benevolent organizations, teachers and children of the public and private schools in the county.

Line of March and Order of Exercises:
 The procession will form at 10:30 o'clock a. m., on Virginia street, right resting on second street. The procession will move promptly at 11 o'clock a. m., and observe the following line of march:

Down Second to Centre, through Centre to Commercial Row, up Commercial Row to Sierra, through Sierra to the Cemetery, where the column will break and decorate the dead heroes' last resting places. At the direction of the Grand Marshal the column will re-form and observe the following line of march: Down Sierra street to Fourth, up Fourth to West, down West to Third, up Third to the Masonic Cemetery, where a like ceremony will be performed, after which the column will re-form and march east on Third street to Sierra, crossing the railroad track to Commercial Row, thence east to the Nevada Theater, where the procession will disperse.

Organizations intending to participate in the exercises will notify the Marshal in time to be assigned positions in the column. Immediately after the procession disperses appropriate literary exercises will be held at the Nevada Theater.

Chlelovich & Co. have enlarged their trade until now it reaches to all parts of Nevada and the country north of us in California. They do a first-class wholesale liquor business, and are stocked to supply any order, large or small, at short notice. Their retail department is a very popular resort.

A Stray Papoose.

Last night when Mr. Cook of the gas works was going home he noticed something behind him, and in the obscurity of darkness took it to be a dog; but when he got to where he could see he found it was a little bit of Indian boy, just old enough to toddle, which had been lost by its drunken mother. He took the young brave home, but it set up such a fearful squalling at the unusual comforts of a shelter that Cook took it to the jail and left it.

Plute Cooking.

An Indian was discovered yesterday lugging a fat porcupine home. On being accosted with the question, "You boil him, Jim," he said, "No, me bake him;" and so he did. The animal was never touched with a knife to skin or clean, but was thrown into the fire and burned, fried and baked until it just suited the Plute palate.

COUNTY SUPERINTENDENTS.

Some Pertinent Remarks Concerning Their Eligibility as School Teachers.

Editor Gazette:—In the issue of your paper of May 17, you quote the Sentinel's strictures on Mr. Young's opinion, as to whether a County Superintendent may teach in the public schools of his own county. Not seeing any sound reasons advanced in the article, I beg to ask the Sentinel to give the public some valid or legal objection why Mr. Young's opinion is not in accordance with law and the best interests of our schools. While I read "other irregularities of a legal sort might be mentioned," and found nothing in the article but generalities, I wondered why the editor refrained from publishing some of his good reasons. He does say, however, that the County Superintendent would audit his own accounts; therefore he should not teach. Is he the only officer who must audit his own accounts? Does not the County Auditor audit his own bills against the county, and is he not made a preferred creditor at that? How would the Sentinel correct this radical wrong, which also appears to be "in violation of one of the fundamental principles upon which our Government is established?" How would this apostle of reform have the State Controller get his salary? Does not that official draw his own warrant? While these officers must certainly do draw their own warrants and audit their own bills, the County Superintendent as teacher has two checks, so to speak, upon his rapacity. First, his account must be verified by at least two sworn officers, namely, the school trustees of his district. Second, it must be audited by the County Auditor, the same as all other bills cashed by the County Treasurer.

Possibly the Sentinel editor, having had in the past such excellent opportunities for knowing considers County Superintendents more learned and successful thieves than other officers, hence these extra precautions. Now, Mr. Sentinel, there is a favorable opportunity to rise up and turn State's evidence on your former avocation and explain why, in your opinion, these officials should have more restrictions imposed upon them than any others.

Again: It is said that the Superintendent must neglect his duties either as Superintendent or as teacher. For the paltry sum of $100 per year does the law contemplate that this office shall require all his time superintending? In Churchill county there are but about 100 pupils, and the Superintendent receives the vast sum of $5.50 per month. In some other counties his pay is no more. Most he be shut out of the school room as a teacher because the duties of his office compel him to visit his scholars twice a year?

Further: The practical teacher should be the best qualified to superintend scholars. As a natural result he is conversant with the methods of teaching, the improvement in disciplining scholars and all the peculiarities of school-room life; and for this mere fallacy of an objection is the experienced man to be thrust from the superintendency of our schools and an "old fogey" substituted who knows nothing of the school system of the present day?

"A professional for his work and a fool for his boss" is as bad when applied to school work as to any other; yet some men fail to recognize this fact. Now, since the Sentinel editor must have studied this subject from a legal standpoint, as he intimates he has, I hope he will come forward and give the public the full benefit of his researches in Blackstonian lore and state all the objections in his possession as to why the County Superintendent should not be allowed to teach in the public schools.

Dinwiddle of Long valley last Sunday on suspicion of his having committed a murder there in 1877. An examination was held before Justice Blake yesterday, but there not being sufficient evidence adduced to bind him over for trial, the prisoner was discharged. J. B. Roberts testified that in 1880 Dinwiddle told him that he went to Friend's cabin, but did not find him there, and on proceeding a short distance was startled by Friend raising up from the bushes with an ax in his hand, when he (Dinwiddle) leveled his rifle and shot him. Any more than that is not known, but Friend has not been seen since. It is the opinion of many in that section that Dinwiddle killed him, and then burned his body. Dinwiddle is about 70 years of age and very infirm.

All Going.

The Banner mill started up yesterday. Everything in the mountains is at full swing now.

THE DIAMOND SQUARE.

The Ball-Tossers Waking up—A Game to be Played To-morrow.

This fine weather drives the boys out of doors in the evening, and the problem of what to do with themselves seems about to find a solution in the revival of baseball matters. If the enthusiasm which now prevails among the young men of the town would hold out, Reno has the material for the champion club of the State. Petty jealousies among the members and mismanagement of business matters of former base-ball organizations have been the real cause of their repeated failures. To-morrow the first game of the season will be played on the Plaza. It will be between a nine who contemplate organizing a club and another nine who think that if the best men of the town are to compose the proposed club, some of their number should be admitted, and the result of to-morrow's game may prove it.

The best cure for diseases of the nerves, brain and muscles, is Brown's Iron Bitters.

PERSONALS.

Martin Saunders, an old Reno boy, is in town.

Gus, Wright, the powder man, went east this morning.

Gen. Davis went to Virginia to-day to take leave of his Comstock friends.

A. E. Ross of Long Valley, with a load of supplies for his ranch, left for home to-day.

James Beebe, a pioneer of Michigan, is visiting his daughter, Mrs. J. N. Wallace, at Camp 24.

J. N. Wallace of Camp 23 came down on the morning train to make purchases for his wood camp.

W. C. Brown of Greenville came in yesterday with friends who went east to-day and took the back track for home.

Frank Free, Superintendent of this division of the C. P., came from Truckee this morning and went to Wadsworth.

H. N. Haley, a Honey Lake freighter, to-day took out a very fine top buggy of the Studebaker persuasion for J. D. Byers.

W. R. Chamberlain says it will be impossible for him to serve as a State Fair Trustee, his own business demanding his attention.

Prof. Thomas Price, the expert miner and metallurgist, went east yesterday on a visit to his old home in Wales, from which he has been absent many years.

Killip, the professional pool-seller, with a number of others in the same line of business, went through here for Salt Lake this morning, to take in the races.

Mrs. Charles Becker fell out of a buggy day before yesterday and broke her arm between the wrist and elbow. Dr. Bergman set the limb and the lady is now doing well.

Mrs. J. H. Rolyea and daughter Mattie of Greenville were at the Golden Eagle Hotel last night, and took the train eastward to-day for a visit to friends at Ann Arbor, Michigan.

The Duke of Athos, accompanied by several other noblemen now visiting the Bay, will be at Lake Tahoe next week, and will visit Reno, about which he must have heard a great deal.

Hay Rake and Loader.

A patent has been obtained through Dewey & Co.'s Mining and Scientific Press Patent Agency for a hay rake and loader by Ebenezer B. Towl of Franktown, in this county. This hay loader consists of a wheeled frame, adapted to be attached behind a wagon, and provided with a peculiar directing apron in which a novel toothed cylinder revolves, and from which a traveling draper extends to the wagon, whereby the hay is picked up from the ground, elevated to the draper and by it carried to the wagon. The object is to provide a simple and effective machine to load hay upon a wagon to which it is attached, and which it follows.

A Miserable Reptile.

The mountains furnish many strange forms of life which the dry, hot valleys never develop. Old iron pine logs seem to be the favorite nest of a loathsome creature which is half way between a worm and a snake. It is usually a foot long and nearly an inch in diameter, with a head like a snake and a clumsy, blunt tail. It is of a dead color, between a dirty green and a brown, without spots or stripes. It is slow of movement, cold and clammy to the touch and seems to be more of a jelly than bone and muscle. It is regarded as harmless, and the woodmen pick it up and handle it carelessly.

A Nice Present.

Miss Mollie Roff and Mrs. W. D. Phillips took an hour on Thursday and called on a few of Rev. W. R. Jeweys' friends and gathered $167 as a present to him and his good wife. The cash was handed to everybody who aided that the present is not to be used to pay the $100 salary due Mr. Jeweys from the church. No one who contributed owed the church a cent.

Nevada Land Sales.

Surveyor-General Preble says that the State continues to dispose of large tracts of land. The monthly sales since January have been from 4,000 to 5,000 acres.

AN OLD INDIAN.

"Shake Hands John" Gone to the Happy Hunting Ground.

One of the oldest inhabitants of Humboldt county died a few days ago in Paradise valley, says the Silver State. He was known as "Shake-hands John," and according to the most reliable information attainable was about 80 years of age. He had grown children when the first pale-face made his appearance on the Humboldt, along about the year 1842. He and his immediate relatives were always friendly disposed toward the whites, and his son-in-law, Captain Sou, who died many years ago from the effects of wounds received while fighting hostile Indians, led troops and settlers against the hostiles on several occasions during the Indian troubles of 1864-65. "Shake-hands John" piloted Robert McBeth and G. W. Fox from Unionville to Battle Mountain when they discovered the Battle Mountain mines and located the present town of Galena.

PLUMAS ITEMS.

News Items Culled From Our Greenville Exchange.

The Bulletin of May 23d contains the following:

A government land detective is here looking after trespassers.

The long continued drought had made farmers despondent earlier in the spring, but all now express themselves well satisfied with their prospects, and feel assured of a fairly prosperous year.

The horse Slim Jim was sold recently in Sacramento to W. W. Morrow, the owner of Ashley, for $3,000. Less than two years ago Jim was offered in Greenville for $400 and his owner could not find a purchaser for him at that price.

Horses as well as men are better appreciated abroad than at home.

A prospecting company has been organized. Individual prospectors have been at work during 25 years or longer, and as yet the mineral deposits have been but touched in spots and scratched on the surface.

The great value of peas for hog feed only begins to be realized in this valley. Messrs. A. J. Ford and Hugh McCutcheon of North Arm have each put in a quantity of seed peas this season for hog feed. The experiment will be of interest.

SIERRA VALLEY ITEMS.

Interesting Scraps from Saturday's "Leader."

Some of the grain in the vicinity of Adam's Neck has been injured by the late frosts.

Webber and Independence lakes will probably be ready for tourists in about two weeks.

Bobby Fogale had one of the bones of his leg broken the other day by being thrown from a buggy.

The prospects are good for a light crop of grasshoppers this year; or the prospects are poor for a heavy crop of grasshoppers, whichever you want to take it.

Some of the ranchers around Beckworth are having trouble with their land titles, caused by ex-Register Crane's peculiar method of running a land office. A special agent is now investigating the matter.

The prospect for a big crop of quails next fall is promising. Never before at this season of the year have they been known to be so plentiful as now.

Church Notices.

Services will be held at Trinity Church to-morrow at the usual hours. It will be the last time Mr. Jeweys will officiate in Reno.

Services in the Baptist Church at 11 o'clock A. M. and 7:30 P. M. by the pastor, Rev. E. B. Hatch. Morning subject: "Christ the End of the Law." Evening subject: "What is Truth?" Praise service in the evening until 8 o'clock. Seats free and all made welcome.

Sabbath services will commence at the Congregational church at 11 o'clock A. M. and 7:30 in the evening. Sunday school at 12:15. Welcome to all. A. B. Palmer, pastor.

Sylvan Pleasures at Foodunk.

A party consisting of Frank Merrill, Mrs. Berner, Miss Josie Finlayson, Miss Minnie Gibbs and other ladies, went out to Poeyville to-day to enjoy a genuine picnic with other friends there in waiting for them. They will have a dance this evening, with Lufe Hunt as chief musician.

Attention, Knights.

Members of Amity Lodge No. 8, K. of P., and sojourning brothers, are requested to meet at the Pavilion to-morrow (Sunday) afternoon at 3 o'clock, sharp, for drill; swords and belts. By order, J. F. AITKEN, C. C. W. L. BECHTEL, K. of R. & S.

Nash Doesn't Win This Time.

The charges in Constable Nash's bill which were laid over by the Commissioners at the May meeting were submitted by the parties informally to the Court. Judge Boardman's opinion given yesterday was in favor of the county.

A Dead Dog Anchored in the Truckee.

That month-old dead dog which is seen by every one who has occasion to cross the iron bridge, must give the Truckee water an unpleasant taste to those who have to drink it.

A QUESTION.

Who is the Fraudulent Tree Peddler.

We have received a letter from Reno, Nevada, says the Rural Press, stating that there is a man going about the northern counties of California pretending to take orders for trees, and at the same time borrowing money on the order, or buying produce to be paid for in trees, etc. It is alleged that he swindled people in Mason valley, Nevada, by such games last winter. We would caution all our readers against being imposed on in this way. Do not pay your money to anyone who cannot give satisfactory authorization or reference. If our readers in the districts named know more of the operations of the person described, we should like to hear from them.

Of Importance to Farmers.

A. H. Manning calls the attention of the public to the fact that he has been appointed agent for Baker & Hamilton for this region. Baker & Hamilton make first-class goods and Mr. Manning knows just what this country needs. A long business experience here has made him an expert in agricultural machinery, and anyone trading with him will find that he knows what good machines are. Call at his immense warehouse and see how cheaply you can own your own machines.
